Bright Building Outlook Viewed by State Official

A bright outlook for the building industry in the coming year is seen by Commissioner Norman P. Mason of the Federal Housing Administration.

He pointed to the increase in FHA applications in recent months as indicating public confidence in the soundness of the economy. In the first six weeks homes were 65 percent higher than in the first six weeks of 1957.

Mason said that conditions are favorable for a continued upward trend in the volume of home construction and home improvement.

People are not hesitating to build or buy homes, he declared, and lenders are ready to finance the transactions.

Regional Yo-Yo Tourney Slated

City-wide Yo-Yo champions, Bob Fisher and Cheryl Pepe, face even tougher competition Saturday when they compete in regional yo-yo tournament to be held at 10 a.m. in the civic auditorium. The tournament will be limited to the first place boy and girl winners from the entire South Bay area which includes eight communities.

Although hosted by the Torrance Recreation Department, the official judging will be done by the state representatives of the Duncan Yo-Yo Company.

FEDERAL POSTS LISTED

Posts as science and engineering aides are listed with Mrs. Victorine E. Weback, civil service information representative at the Torrance Post Office.

LIFE MEMBERSHIPS—Two Honorary Life Memberships were presented at the afternoon meeting of the Harbor City Elementary School PTA held on February 11. Mrs. Dean McIntire, right, pins the Honorary Life Membership insignia on Mrs. James Triffon, center, as Mrs. Albert Dudley, also a Life Membership recipient, watches. This was also the Founders' Day meeting and past presidents were presented with folding cups in recognition of their hard work. Mrs. Triffon did the engraving on the cups.

They include Gloria Thorpe, and Janice Hollick, violins; Judi Martin, cello, and Eugene Minor, bass Clarinet.

Narbonne Group Named to Band

Four Narbonne High School membership in the 125-piece students have been selected for Los Angeles All-City Orchestra.

They include Gloria Thorpe, and Janice Hollick, violins; Judi Martin, cello, and Eugene Minor, bass Clarinet.

South Demo Club Backs Trio for Municipal Posts

Endorsement of three candidates in the Torrance municipal election have been given by the South Torrance Democratic Club.

It backs J. A. Beasley for City Council, Frank Hunter for city treasurer and Herma Tillim for city clerk.

The group is also backing reelection of Cecil R. King for Congress and Vincent Thomas for Assembly.

John J. Barton, club president, said his organization will nominate William Henderson for the Board of Equalization at the Democratic Committee convention.

The club also plans to hold a "Public Issues Night" on the councilmanic race.

The club meets on the last Tuesday of the month in the Waleria Recreation building.

Lionettes Form So. Torrance Club

The home of Mrs. David Tanner, 4256 Newton ave., Torrance, was the location of the first meeting of the wives of the newly chartered South Torrance Lion's club. The purpose was to organize the group, hold election of officers and appoint committee Chairmen.

Attending this first meeting were: Mrs. Max Appleby, Joe Bellante, Herbert Farris, Rex Green, Daniel Hyland, Wallace Hamilton, Richard Landauer, Bert Levy, A. E. Perkins, Warren Post, George Powell and John Wallace. The group voted to adopt the name "South Torrance Lionettes". They will meet twice monthly. The exact evenings of the twice monthly meetings will be definitely selected at the next meeting. It will be held at the home of Mrs. Max Appleby, Torrance, Thursday evening March 6th, at 8 p.m.

Present to assist in the organization and lend their guidance based on past experience were Mrs. A. F. R. Ewalt and Mrs. Abe Robinson, both Past Presidents of the Lioness Club of Torrance.
